

LAWRIE KOBZA

Boardman & Clark

Lawrie Kobza is Of Counsel with Boardman & Clark where she has represented municipal water systems and other utilities on a full range of legal matters for over 25 years. Lawrie has served as legal counsel and lobbyist for the Municipal Environment Group – Water Division, a coalition of Wisconsin municipalities that provide water utility input on water supply legislation and regulation. She has served as legal counsel to the Central Brown County Water Authority, Wisconsin's first joint local water authority, established to provide a regional water supply for six member communities. She also has served as chair of the Wisconsin Water Association, a board member of the Wisconsin Public Utility Institute, and received the George Warren Fuller Award from the State Bar of Wisconsin's Public Utilities Section. Lawrie is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law and business schools.