

MARA ASCHEMAN
Xcel Energy

Mara Ascheman is the regional vice president of rates and regulatory affairs for Xcel Energy in Wisconsin and Michigan. In this role, she oversees the revenue requirements department for those states and directs the development of regulatory rate case filings and Public Service Commission of Wisconsin (PSCW) permits. Mara started with the Xcel in 2008 as a law clerk and since then has progressed through roles of increasing responsibility, most recently serving as a regulatory attorney. She provided counsel on state regulatory matters for Xcel Energy's regulated operations in Wisconsin and Minnesota, regularly practicing before the PSCW and the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission. Mara received a B.S. in political science and international relations from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and a J.D. from William Mitchell College of Law. Before attending law school, she worked as a legal assistant in the Wisconsin Governor's Office. Mara has been serving on community boards since 2010 and is currently the vice president of the Children's Museum of Eau Claire board of directors.
